

Civil Rights Activism & Agriculture: A Family That Kept the Land

Community and Environmental Sociology Presents the 2025 Haller Lecture, welcoming
Reverend Wendell Paris, Mr. George Paris, and Mrs. Alice Paris

When: Tuesday, April 29. 5:00 p.m. Lecture, Reception to follow.

Where: DeLuca Forum Room 1255, Discovery Building (330 N. Orchard St.)
 Reception to follow in Discovery Open Court

Come hear Professor Monica White in conversation with three Civil and Voting Rights Giants who were also farmers and leaders in the Black Farmers' Cooperative Movement: Reverend Wendell Paris, Mr. George Paris, and Mrs. Alice Paris.

Their important stories link farming and political liberation movements and have many lessons for our path forward today.