Welcome to UW–Madison's Family Weekend!

We are ecstatic to have you as we open the doors to our expansive campus unlike ever before. As you explore, we hope you will discover all the amazing things that make this a special place. This weekend includes opportunities to experience the arts, student services, athletics, academics, science, natural areas, the city, and much more. Enjoy your time with your student as you participate in UW–Madison's traditions together.

We encourage you to share family photos from the weekend via social media (Twitter: @UWParent, Facebook: "UW–Madison Parent Program) with the hashtag #FamilyWeekend2016, or by email (parent@uwmad.wisc.edu).

Finally, consider making Family Weekend an annual tradition! Look out for the Family Weekend 2017 date, which will come out in January.

Thank you for visiting and supporting your student!

Check-In

1 p.m. – 7 p.m.

Gordon Dining and Event Center, Sonata/Concerto Rooms
(Second Floor), 770 West Dayton Street

Start your Family Weekend experience at the Gordon Dining and Event Center. Pick up all of your Family Weekend materials—including your welcome bag, tickets, and wristbands (which will provide you access to events)—prior to attending your first event.

A second check-in will take place from 8 a.m. – 2 p.m. at the Gordon Dining and Event Center on Saturday, October 22.

Showcase

1 p.m. – 5 p.m.

Gordon Dining and Event Center, Sonata/Concerto Rooms

Grab coffee and visit with representatives from key campus departments and student organizations during this interactive event.

International Academic (IAP) and Internship (IIP) Programs Open House

3 p.m. – 4 p.m.

Red Gym, 716 Langdon Street

Learn about study abroad and internships opportunities around the world. Advisors and returned students from IAP and IIP will share information and answer questions about program options, academics, financial matters, and more.

Camp Randall Stadium Tours

3 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Leaving from Stephen M. Bennett Student-Athlete Performance Center (north of stadium), 1440 Monroe Street

Make a dream come true—step foot on the turf that is home to the Wisconsin Badgers. Tours of historic Camp Randall include visiting luxury suites, trophies in the Bud Selig Hall of Champions, and the “WOW Room.”

Please note: You must first check in at the Gordon Dining and Event Center to receive a tour ticket. Tour tickets are on a first-come, first-served basis and are limited to the first 300 people.*

Family Snapshot Tour*

4 p.m. – 5 p.m.

Union South Welcome Desk, 1308 West Dayton Street

Bring the whole family (and your camera) to take pictures of the most iconic places around campus. Campus tour guides will share fun facts about campus and serve as your photographers.

School and College Events

Visit the UW–Madison school or college of interest to your student.

4:30 p.m. – 6:30 p.m. (specific times below)

Locations vary

College of Agricultural and Life Sciences

4:30 p.m. – 6 p.m.

Allen Centennial Garden, 620 Babcock Drive

Join CALS in the beautiful Allen Centennial Garden (rain location: Agricultural Hall, Room 116) for light refreshments and socializing. CALS faculty and staff members will be walking throughout the gardens talking with students and families about their UW–Madison experience. Families are encouraged to share their UW stories and ask questions about campus resources. In addition, the CALS Academic Affairs office will host a short program at 5 p.m. in the gardens (or rain location).

College of Engineering

5 p.m. – 6:30 p.m.

Engineering Centers Building Lobby,
1550 Engineering Drive

Join the College of Engineering for an open house and reception. Advisors, faculty members, and student leaders will be on-hand to network and answer questions about the engineering experience.

College of Letters & Science

5 p.m. – 6:30 p.m.

Weeks Hall, UW–Madison Geology Museum,
1215 West Dayton Street

The College of Letters & Science invites you to learn more about the largest academic unit at UW–Madison. Light hors d'oeuvres and refreshments will be served at the courtyard and lobby of the UW–Madison Geology Museum. There will be a brief program featuring Associate Dean Eric Wilcots and information tables hosted by L&S Academic Advising and Career Services. Stay and explore the UW Geology Museum, a treasure in the College of Letters & Science. Guided tours will be available. RSVP required due to space limitations.

School and College Events

School of Business

5 p.m. – 6 p.m.

Grainger Hall—Wisconsin School of Business,
Capital Café, 975 University Avenue

Explore the Wisconsin School of Business as you are welcomed by Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) students and staff members. They will be on hand to answer any questions you have and to share about the program. Guided tours of Grainger Hall will be provided by BBA student ambassadors as well. Join the open house to network with others in the BBA community.

School of Human Ecology

5 p.m. – 6:30 p.m.

Nancy Nicholas Hall, Room 1199, 1300 Linden Drive

From understanding a lease to creating and following budgets, campus life is filled with choices about when and how to spend money. Where do you start? Join Linda Lepe, certified financial planner and director of the Personal Finance Program, for practical advice and tips for families and students just starting the college experience or transitioning to their first job. In addition, meet Dean Soyeon Shim to learn more about innovative ways the School of Human Ecology (SoHE) helps students discover their passion and maximize their educational experience to improve the human experience.

School of Nursing

5 p.m. – 6 p.m.

Signe Skott Cooper Hall, 701 Highland Avenue

Come explore Signe Skott Cooper Hall, the new home of the School of Nursing. Meet current students, advisors, and professors; take a self-guided tour; get a behind-the-scenes look at the nursing simulation center; and experience the future of nursing education today.

School of Pharmacy

5 p.m. – 6 p.m.

Rennebohm Hall, 777 Highland Avenue

Join the School of Pharmacy for a general information session and tours of Rennebohm Hall. Students, parents, and families will have the opportunity to connect with School of Pharmacy faculty, staff, and students in the Doctor of Pharmacy program.

Family Weekend Sale at the University Book Store

6 p.m. – 7 p.m.

University Book Store, 711 State Street

From game-day gear to family spirit wear, the University Book Store is a one-stop shop for all things Wisconsin. Head on over for a Family Hour of in-store specials and more.

Chancellor's and Powers-Knapp Scholarship Programs Open House

6 p.m. – 8 p.m.

School of Education, Wisconsin Idea Room, 1000 Bascom Mall

The Chancellor's Scholarship Program and the Powers-Knapp Scholarship Program welcome scholarship recipients and their families to an open house, where they will have a chance to meet with program staff, current scholars, and program alumni.

Wisconsin Science Festival: Science Arcade and Games Galore

6 p.m. – 9 p.m.

Discovery Building, 330 North Orchard Street

The Science Arcade and Games Galore event is a hands-on science event that connects people of all ages to science, technology, engineering, math, and of course, the fun behind games! There will be vintage arcade games, Virtual Reality, Augmented Reality, DIY cardboard games, multi-player games, place-based games, board games, and much more. Throughout the evening, three keynote presenters will speak in the DeLuca Forum about their involvement in the world of games and answer any burning questions.

Our Funny University*

7:30 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.

Union South, Varsity Hall, 1308 West Dayton Street

Brought in for a third year, and especially for Family Weekend, Our Funny University features UW-Madison alumnus Dr. Andrew Bergman. He will share his story: from working on his dissertation at UW-Madison, titled We're in the Money: Depression American and Its Films, to becoming a successful screenwriter. Bergman has written screenplays for The In-Laws, Fletch, and Soapdish, as well as written and directed Honeymoon in Vegas, It Could Happen to You, and So Fine.

Please note: No tickets are required for this event. However, seating is first-come, first-served.*

General Parking Information

FRIDAY

Check-in will occur at Gordon Dining and Event Center. Please be aware of lot entrance signs as a parking permit is required in most lots until 4:30 p.m.

SATURDAY

Check-in and many daytime activities will occur at Gordon Dining and Event Center. Families can park their vehicles at the beginning of the day and use the free 80, 81, or 82 buses to access events across campus throughout the day and evening.

SUNDAY

The Musically Infused Brunch will occur at Union South.

Parking Options for Family Weekend

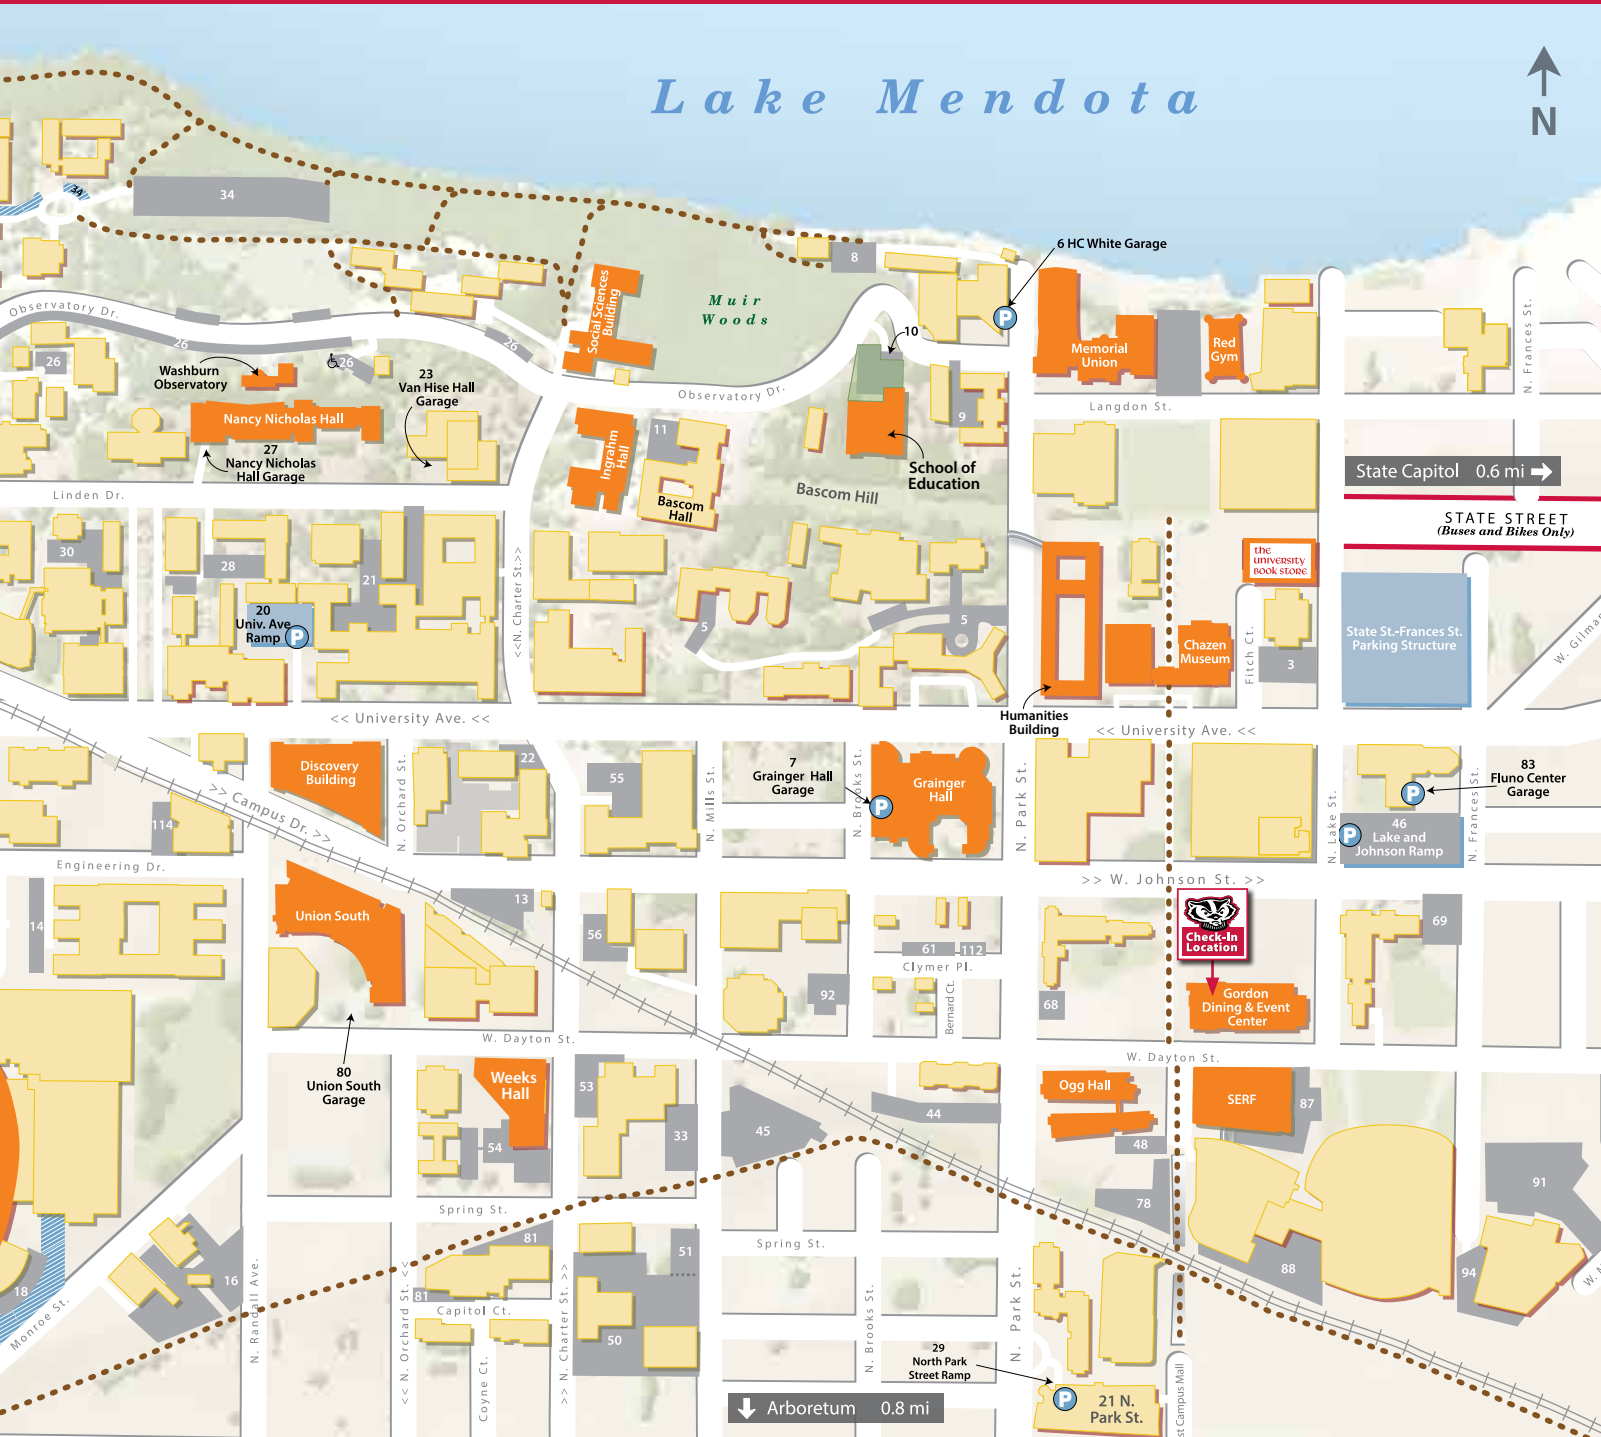

Campus Lots: Parking is free after 4:30 p.m. Friday as well as all day Saturday and Sunday in the lots listed below. Free parking expires Monday morning at 7 a.m.

Lots 4, 16, 19, 26, 34, 35, 37, 39, 40, 41, 43, 45, 51, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 64, 82, and 86 have free parking availability. Please note that each campus parking lot has a sign at the entrance with the lot enforcement times and the lot number. You can find a map and information regarding these lots at map.wisc.edu.

Lot 46: On Saturday, staff from Transportation Services will be selling parking from 7 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Garage/Gated Parking Facilities for Visitors

There are also garage/gated parking facilities located on campus for visitors. These lots charge hourly rates with a maximum of $12 per day. You can find a map of these lots along with a live feed of vacancies by selecting "Public Parking" at map.wisc.edu.

Downtown Madison Lots

The City of Madison also has a number of lots near campus. You can find a map of them at go.wisc.edu/k67165. We will have staff located at Lot 46 (corner of Lake Street and Johnson Street) to answer questions and help navigate parking.

*The Parent Program is unable to guarantee parking. If you have parking questions during Family Weekend, please feel free to call Campus and Visitor Relations (7:30 a.m. – 10 p.m., 608-263-2400) or Transportation Services—Special Events (8 a.m. – 4 p.m., 608-262-8683).

Buses and Open House Trolley

Many Family Weekend activities are within a short walk of one another. The free campus buses—80 and 84 (daytime), and 80, 81, and 82 (nighttime)—circulate throughout campus each day, allowing you to hop on and off near different events. Look for the blue bus stop signs around campus.

For more information on bus routes, visit https://transportation.wisc.edu/transportation/bus_routes.aspx, use the Wisconsin mobile app, or contact Campus and Visitor Relations at 608-263-2400.

Open House Trolley Tour Route

Saturday, October 22

1 p.m. – 4 p.m.

A free vintage trolley will circulate around campus to different open houses. UW-Madison tour guides will provide tours and interesting facts along the way as you hop on and off as you please. The trolley will make stops in front of Ogden Hall for the Career Kickstart Open House, the Memorial Union for Wheelhouse Studios: Getting Crafty, Ingraham Hall, the Allen Centennial Garden, and Steenbock Library.

Look for the trolley signs with Bucky on them at pick-up/drop-off locations. Trolleys will run approximately every 20 minutes.
