NATURE PRESERVE

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

Student Engagement Grants

The UW-Madison Lakeshore Nature Preserve is offering small grant opportunities (up to $1000 each) for undergraduates and faculty or staff working with undergraduates to facilitate the use of the 300-acre natural area as a resource for education.

Applications are due March 1, 2017.

Funds should be expended by Oct. 31, 2017 when a final report is due.
