

Association of Graduate Engaged Scholars

Are you currently doing or interested in research with real-world impacts? Want to know how to get involved in the community while doing research or teaching? Already doing community-based work?

So are we!

The Morgridge Center for Public Service is excited to announce the formation of the Association of Graduate Engaged Scholars. Among other things, this group's goals are to:

- Learn about opportunities methods of engaging with communities as a graduate student
- Network and problem-solve with community engaged faculty and other graduate students
- Share academic articles on good practice and other resources
- Share and receive feedback on peers' community-based projects and courses
- Discuss how to assess outcomes of community-based work

Our first meeting will be held on Thursday, September 17 from 2-3 pm in the Morgridge Center for Public Service; 154 Red Gym. Please join us!
